

Dear Nagypapa,

I am writing this letter to tell you about how you inspire me everyday. You inspire me to be positive, determined, ^{to} always perform mitzvot, in the community

I have many amazing memories with you. You taught me how to make strudel. ~~the~~ I remember making the Napier's Bones counting sticks with you, and learning about their uses.

Every day, I go into the world to help make people happy, just like you try to do. I am writing this with a finger monster on my hand, and one of the buttons you made on my shirt. You have taught me to believe that anything is possible. I hope to someday put the "Its Possible!" sign back on the top of the rock wall. Because of you, I let nothing stop me from learning, because education is the one thing in life that cannot be taken away from you.

Your ~~outlook~~ ^{outlook} on life ^{and your} ~~and your~~ ^{your positive} ~~positive~~ ^{is} solutions are always contagious. I want to tell you that I love you very much and will always continue to do so. You have taught me that I should always ~~not~~ choose how I react to things I may have no control over. You have made the world a better place, and have taught me so. I will always do the same.

Your heart is a big one, full of love and compassion. You are my hero and I love you more than anyone else in the world does. Something I have learned from you is that anyone can love, and everyone has a brave sool, but it takes both to help others. ~~the~~ ~~time~~ ~~if~~ I ~~will~~ enjoy eating mangoes with you, and you have taught me how to say the shecheanu. You never cease to contribute to the love of our whole family. You have changed my outlook on life in countless ways. No one can ever match your dedication to others. Every day, I hope to become as much of a hero as you are. You always have a fierce monster in hand and can conquer

From the moment I was born, you have loved me infinitely, and I have loved you just as much. There are many things I cannot find words for, but one of the things I can is that ~~more than~~ I love you more than there are stars in the sky.

Love,

Nina
